

Reezie DeVet

UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation welcomes Reezie DeVet to its Board of Directors! With multiple degrees in nursing, nursing administration and education, as well as a doctorate in educational leadership, Reezie brings with her a wealth of knowledge in the healthcare field, including clinical nursing, teaching experience, and administration.

Reezie spent several decades in hospital administration, including director and vice president positions in patient care services as well as chief operating officer. Before retiring, Reezie was CEO of the hospital and healthcare system in Petoskey, Michigan and oversaw its affiliation and integration into the McLaren Healthcare System. Her work with healthcare consulting companies has helped organizations improve operations and leadership capability, and she has co-authored books on quality improvement in nursing, physician practice, and ancillary services.

Reezie has also served on a variety of nonprofit boards, including the Porter Hills corporate board from 1992 to 2000, at a time of great growth in the organization's history. She also chaired this board.

This Midland native has lived throughout West Michigan, including Holland, Petoskey, and Kalamazoo/Portage, her current home. A mother and grandmother, Reezie is active in her church and enjoys planning trips and reunions with her extended family.
