

Tim Schad

Tim Schad's experience, leadership, and business acumen make him a valuable member of the UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation Board of Directors, which he has served since 2011. He is also a member of the Foundation's Investment Committee and a former member of the Porter Hills corporate board.

In 1979, Tim joined Nucraft Furniture Company, founded in Grand Rapids by his grandfather in 1945. He served as Vice President and President prior to his appointment as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Nucraft. From 2001 to 2006, he also served as the Vice President for Finance and Administration and Treasurer of Grand Valley State University.

Tim is an active supporter of family businesses in Michigan and is board member and treasurer of the Family Business Alliance. He has served on the boards of many private companies as well as Ferris State University and Kendall College of Art and Design. Tim is a graduate of Dartmouth College's Thayer School of Engineering and Harvard Business School where he earned his MBA degree with honors.

The UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation is grateful for Tim's service and expertise on its Board.
