

Irfan Bhabhrawala

Irfan Bhabhrawala joined the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board of Directors in Spring 2023, bringing with him a wealth of financial planning experience. Irfan joined Arbor Financial, LLC in early 2014 and purchased the business in November 2015. He is involved in all major business operations and serves as Lead Financial Planner.

Irfan is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and a Registered Tax Preparer. He also has real estate investment and management experience. Irfan and his wife own and manage multiple real estate properties in Ann Arbor, MI.

Irfan is an active member of the Association of Comprehensive Planners (ACP) and the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA). He is also active in the local Ann Arbor financial planning community.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Irfan earned his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering. Prior to his financial planning career, Irfan worked as the University Associate Registrar, with management responsibilities in business intelligence/reporting, information technology and security, and more. Irfan also founded and ran Active Technology Solutions, a consulting company focused on enterprise software implementations, and held consulting roles for PeopleSoft (now Oracle) and Andersen Consulting (now Accenture).

Irfan is passionate about understanding each client's story, their unique situation, and partnering with them to achieve their financial and life goals. His depth and breadth of experience give Irfan a unique perspective for his service on the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board.

Irfan lives in Ann Arbor with his wife, Stacey; son, Zoren; and dog, DJ.
