

Ben Miles

Ben Miles joined the Brio Living Services Board of Trustees in 2024. With more than 25 years of healthcare industry experience, Ben has served in leadership roles of increasing scope and responsibility throughout his career.

Ben serves as the president of Chelsea Hospital, a nationally recognized organization which prides itself on its small-town values. Since his arrival, the hospital has received numerous accolades for patient experience, safety and quality, and overall performance, including 5-Star Quality (CMS) and 100 Top Hospital (Fortune/PINC).

A graduate of Wayne State University and Walsh College with bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, Ben is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) and serves with numerous community groups to help improve health care and support diversity and inclusion efforts. With a passion for community, Ben has dedicated himself through service on numerous local, statewide, and regional boards as well.

Ben and his wife, Stacey, have three daughters. A native Michigander, Ben's commitment to his community and state make him a valuable advocate for the Brio Living Services Board and the older adults it serves shore to shore.
